

MAYOR BRETT. P SMILEY
CITY OF PROVIDENCE

Who to Call for Help

Need help but not sure who to call? There are people ready to help who are just a phone call away.

311

Report or request non-emergency city services such as pothole repairs, noise complaints, etc.

988

Talk or text with a trained counselor for help with emotional distress or suicidal thoughts.

211

Connect 24/7 with housing, food, affordable childcare, and many more social services. Interpretation available.

401-272-3121

Call for non-emergency public safety concerns such as vandalism, lost property, or credit card theft.

911

Get immediate help in a safety, fire, or medical emergency. Trained clinicians are available to respond in-person to mental health or substance use emergencies without police.